TAFE NSW - Western Sydney Institute (WSI)

WSI International Education

TAFE NSW - Western Sydney Institute (WSI) is a multi-award winning training organisation dedicated to supporting the aspirations of individuals, the community and industry in Western Sydney and beyond.

Recognised as the 2011 Australian Skills for Sustainability – Educational Institute, and as the 2010 Australian Large Training Provider of the Year, WSI provides high quality, progressive vocational courses and training and workforce development services. We also offer a range of higher education courses. Smaller class sizes, caring and friendly staff, and practical student-focused teaching strategies make higher education study with us enjoyable.

More than 130,000 students enrol annually in the Institute’s nationally recognised qualifications and customised courses which range from Statements of Attainment through to Advanced Diplomas, Graduate Certificates and Degree programs.

WSI reach extends globally through WSI International Education which is an established provider of vocational education and training. With more than a decade of success in offshore delivery, WSI International delivers TAFE NSW courses and customised training in 10 countries and has international students form more than 40 countries in WSI campuses. The Institute sets up partnerships with overseas educational organisations and offers TAFE NSW courses to overseas students to study in the comfort of their own country and acquire exactly the same qualifications as offered here in New South Wales, Australia.

WSI in a glance

WSI offshore training products and services

WSI has proven ability and significant expertise in the delivery of courses in the format, location and time that will meet the specific requirements of each of our customers, large or small. We tailor our approach to suit local requirements, reflecting cultural diversity and differing contexts.

WSI partner says:

“The relationship between Hong Kong YMCA College of Continuing Education (YMCA–CCE) and TAFE NSW–Western Sydney Institute (WSI) has developed beyond mutual cooperation over the years. We have harnessed the strength of each other to maintain high standards of Quality Assurance; provide timely support for teachers and students and to link with industries, the community and local industries in innovative ways so that the best outcomes are delivered for YMCA–CCE students. From students’ perspective, not only does TAFE NSW Syllabi provide a solid foundation for the workplace but also prepare them for stepping into tertiary education.”
